

Name	Adapting to Climate Change: An Introduction for Canadian Municipalities (2010)
Description	This guide, an updated and expanded version of a 2006 booklet by the Canadian Climate Impacts and Adaptation Research Network, provides background on the need for climate change adaptation, key ingredients for adaptation planning, and case studies that illustrate how municipal decision-makers and staff can put in place climate change adaptation measures.
Type	- PRODUCTS: Plans, Assessments, Studies - PRODUCTS: Training and Capacity Building
Sector	- Public Health and Safety - Infrastructure - Cross Disciplinary Focus Area
Region
Lead Agencies	Public Works and Government Services Canada (PWGSC)
Contacts	droitdauteur@pwgsc-tpsgc.gc.ca.