

NExUS Programs and Organizations Sat Jan 20 21:37:49 EST 2018

| | |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Name | Engineers Canada |
| Web | http://www.engineerscanada.ca/climate-change |
| Description | Engineers Canada has undertaken work to develop an infrastructure climate risk procedure known as the PIEVC Engineering Protocol. This work was co-sponsored by Natural Resources Canada. The Protocol is a tool for engineers and other professionals to assess infrastructure vulnerability to current and future climate. |
| Types | - Non-governmental Organization (NGO) |
| Contacts | David Lapp, FEC, P.Eng., Manager, Professional Practice |